Online Yoga Class Refund Policy:

- If you have purchased a Pay As You Go single class and have attended the session, there is no refund for any reason.
- If you have purchased any Class Pass and you decide to cancel after your first class, this will result in a partial refund only, this refund being for the remaining unused sessions left on your class pass.
- If you book a class but then do not cancel or attend the class, a recording of the live class will be sent to you and this lesson will be deducted from your class pass.
- You are responsible for your behaviour in class, if Sarah Grattan feels you are or have behaved in a way which is deemed unacceptable or inappropriate during the live class, Sarah Grattan reserves the right to immediately remove you from a live class and cancel your class pass and any remaining, unused classes will be refunded.
- Abusive or aggressive behaviour towards Sarah Grattan or another class member will not be tolerated and Sarah Grattan reserves the right to immediately remove you from a live class and cancel your class pass and any remaining, unused classes will be refunded.
